STORM PUTS A CRIMP
IN VERACITY OF CITY
FIRE ALARM SYSTEM

Heavy winds last night damaged the city fire alarm wires, crossing them at some points in such a manner that alarms were sent in few minutes for several hours.
Electricians located several of the troubles during the night. The trouble remained near the engines nearly all night as there was no way of telling at first whether the automatic alarm rang a fake or a fire.

UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS
DOINGS

Many people driving on the Heights in the evening have remarked on the fragrance in the air from the honeysuckles which are now in bloom. In the early morning and at the dusk, these vines are literally alive with humming birds, and it is a very pretty sight to see them flitting from one flower to another sipping the honey from the blossoms.

The University Heights Realty company sold a beautiful lot on Vassar avenue last week to Williamson & Harlow, who are making immediate arrangements to build an attractive home.

One fashion is being started on the Heights which it is hoped will be encouraged by all home owners. That is the painting of evergreens. They require some time and attention the first year, but after that scarcely more than any ordinary tree, and they certainly do add much to the appearance of a home, especially in the winter when everything else is bare.

MEMORIAL DAY

Procession Marches to Cemetery and Babelas Bridge Where Flowers Are Strewn
On the Water.

Under the leadership of patriotic organizations of the city and county, Albuquerque paid tribute to her fallen heroes yesterday, the day consecrated to their memory. The outstanding feature of the celebration of Memorial day was the procession which formed at Old Fellows hall and marched to Fairview cemetery where appropriate services were performed and the soldiers' graves decorated.

Following the ceremonies at the cemetery the procession proceeded to Babelas bridge, where flowers were strewn on the water of the Rio Grande in honor of the dead sailors and marines.

The procession formed at 8:30 o'clock and, aside from citizens who are not directly connected with any of the patriotic organizations, was composed of the following bodies: Grand Army of the Republic, American Legion, Women's Auxiliary, Spanish War Veterans, Woman's Relief Corps, Veterans of Foreign Wars and members of Troop "A," who served as the firing squad.

Services at the unknown soldiers' monument were impressive.
O. H. Mitchell delivering a short and appropriate address.

At noon in I. O. O. F. hall, the W. R. C. served luncheon to all of the organizations participating in the exercises. Speeches, appropriate to the occasion were made after the meal.

About 500 people attended the picnic given by the Sunday school classes of the First Baptist church.
Lunch was served at 12:30 o'clock by the Sunday school ladies. Free lemonade and ice cream were served all day by the members of the Amema society.

Games were on the program, the big feature of which was the baseball game between the members of the young married men's Sunday school and the Aztec society, resulting in the victory of the married men with a score of 18 to 16.

Although most of the cars of Masons attending the Masonic picnic yesterday left for the country houses, over fifty automobiles left the temple in the morning for Alameda grove, where the outing was held. A temporary shooting gallery, a fortune telling booth, and a ball throwing gallery were amusement features. A baseball game between the Masons and the DeMolay boys was played. Ice cream, candy, coffee, fruit, and soda pop were served throughout the day by the order.

ROAD FROM AMARILLO TO ALBUQUERQUE IN FINE SHAPE, REPORT

According to a party of tourists arriving last night from north Texas the road from Amarillo to Albuquerque is in fine shape on account of light rains which hardened most of the sandy stretches.

Heavy going was encountered in several places through gyp rock and alkali stretches.

The road is well marked with the exception of one stretch across country between Fort Sumner and Vaughn and another north of Estancia.

Although the season has hardly started the Harvey houses along the way report a heavy tourist traffic and large parties, especially five and six cars, are especially numerous.
